Welcome and Glory to Jesus Christ!

You are welcome here. Join us in prayer and worship of almighty God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

About the Parish

St. Stephen Byzantine Catholic Church, led by the Holy Spirit, is called to evangelize by proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We commit ourselves to welcoming and caring for all of God's children.

We are a parish of the Byzantine Ruthenian Catholic Eparchy of Parma, an eparchy of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church sui iuris of Pittsburgh. Bishop Milan (Lach) of Parma is our bishop. Archbishop William (Skurla) of Pittsburgh is our Metropolitan. We are in communion with our holy father Francis, the Pope of Rome.

"On the one hand, the East [should not] oppose as heretical the developments that took place in the West in the second millennium and [should] accept the Catholic Church as legitimate and orthodox in the form she [has] acquired in the course of that development, while, on the other hand, the West [should] recognize the Church of the East as orthodox and legitimate in the form she has always had." - Joseph Ratzinger, Principles of Catholic Theology, p. 199

Office of Religious Education
Eparchy of Parma

As we begin the Great Fast this year, we consider ways in which we can share our faith in Christ for all to see. One way to do that is by contributing to the needs supported by the Stewardship Appeal. Have you made your pledge or payment yet? If so, thank you! If not, there is still time! You may mail in the cut-out form in Horizons, or visit us online at parma.org/ibelieve to submit your one-time or monthly donation.

Our parish has met its goal of $9,200. Thank you!

Our third session of the “I Believe” program will meet this week on Saturday, March 9th at 7:00pm after Vespers. Join us as we learn and discuss the Nicene Creed and specifically the Ascension of Jesus into Heaven. Bring a friend! More information can be found online at parma.org/ibelieve.

Women's Retreat

CAREY, Ohio — Retired Bishop John Kudrick of Parma will be the retreat master of the Seventh Annual Women's Retreat, March 15-17, at the Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation Retreat Center. The theme is, “How Does Penance Heal?” Bishop Kudrick will lead retreatants to understand the purpose of penance and how it can be meaningful in healing one's relationship with God. The retreat is sponsored by St. Mary Byzantine Catholic Parish in Marblehead, Ohio. More details to come. Info: Joan Washburn (865) 696-7809.

Lenten Day of Reflection

Sunday, March 17th at St. Nicholas Byzantine Church, 23300 King Drive, Clinton Township, MI. Special guest speaker is Sr. Barbara Jean Mihalchick, OSBM. Sr. Mihalchick is a member of the Sisters of St. Basil the Great located in Uniontown, Pa. All are invited to begin the day by attending the Divine Liturgy at 11 a.m., which will be followed by a luncheon. Sr. Barbara's presentations will speak of the teachings of Jesus at the Last Supper. There will be time for group discussion. The Sacrament of Repentance (Confession) will be available. The day will end with a Lenten prayer service. All are welcome to experience this special time of reflection and prayer during Great Lent.

Sister Barbara Jean Mihalchick is the Program Director of Mount St. Macrina House of Prayer, Uniontown, Pa. After teaching in the parochial schools for several years, Sister earned a Master's in Christian Spirituality from Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska. Sister served at the House of Prayer and in parish ministry. Beginning in 1989, Sister Barbara Jean was for twelve years the Assistant General Superior of the Sisters of the Order of St. Basil the Great with residence in Rome and frequent ministry among the Basilian Sisters in Eastern Europe. Sister is the Vocation Director for her religious community. Sister Barbara Jean regularly gives retreats and offers spiritual direction. Sister is a member of the Fayette County Anti-Trafficking Task Force.

Pysanki Glasses

Pani Katie will be leading two Pysanki classes during the Great Fast. The first will be after the Divine Liturgy and Panachida for All Souls on Saturday, March 30th and the second will be after the Divine Liturgy on April 6th. Come and learn the ancient Slavic art of wax-resist egg decoration. These are a wonderful and traditional way to beautify your Easter baskets for Pascha! The Easter egg represents the tomb of Christ, from which new life comes.

Pysanky make beautiful gifts and are rich in symbolism. The eggs should be taken to the church on Easter Sunday to be blessed, after which they may be given away. Some may be given to the priest. They may be taken to the cemetery and placed on graves of the family. They may be given to your children or godchildren. They were often exchanged by the unmarried girls with the eligible men in the community. Several were saved to place in the coffin of loved ones who might die during the year. Remember that the eggs symbolize life coming out of the tomb. Young people were traditionally given pysanky with bright designs; dark pysanky were given to older people. A bowl full of pysanky may be kept in every home.

PARISH PASTORAL AND FINANCE COUNCILS

Our next joint meeting of both councils will be on Thursday, April 11th at 6:00 pm. If you have any questions, concerns, or items for us to discuss, please submit these in writing to Fr. John or a member of the appropriate council.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SERVICE

Join the Guild! The Guild is dedicated to caring for and beautifying our holy place and all the appointments for our Divine worship. Their next meeting is on Sunday, March 10th.

Join the workers! All are welcome to join the workers every Thursday after Third Hour at 9:00 AM for our weekly parish work day.

Join the cleaners! Please contact Louise Dalbo to volunteer to clean the church for any particular week you're able. Or, get your name put in the rotation of regular church cleaners.

The Myres & Reardon Families are scheduled to clean the church this week. Many thanks to the Raupp Family and to all who worked and cleaned this past week. May God grant them many years!
