

Matins Propers

Thirty-second Sunday after Pentecost

in the Seventh Tone with the Tenth Resurrection Gospel

Hexapsalmos

The reader chants only Psalm 87 on page 4 followed by "Glory..." on page 6.

Matins continues with the Litany of Peace on page 7.

The Lord is God – Tone 7 (page 9)

The Lord is God and has revealed him-self to us; bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Troparia (page 9)

Troparion of the Resurrection – Tone 7

You have de-stroyed Death by your cross; you o-pened par - a - dise to the thief.
The sor - row of the myrrh-bearers you turned to joy. You com-mand-ed your a - pos - tles to pro-claim: Christ our God, you have ris - en, grant - ing great mer - cy to the world.

Cantor (Tone 7):

Glo - ry to the Fa - ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it, now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

The musical notation is written on a single staff in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of two lines of music. The first line contains the lyrics 'Glo - ry to the Fa - ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it,'. The second line contains 'now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.' The melody is simple and melismatic, with long notes and ties.

Festive Theotokion – Tone 7

O The - o - to - kos, we sing your prais - es, for you were a vir - gin be - fore con - ceiv - ing, and re - mained a virgin after giv - ing birth. And since you have giv - en birth to our Sal - va - tion, Je - sus Christ, you have be - come a treasury of as - sist - ance for all who seek resurrexion and e - ter - nal life. There - fore, lift us up from the depths of our trans - gres - sions, for we place our hope in you.

The musical notation is written on a single staff in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of five lines of music. The lyrics are: 'O The - o - to - kos, we sing your prais - es, for you were a vir - gin be - fore', 'con - ceiv - ing, and re - mained a virgin after giv - ing birth. And since you have', 'giv - en birth to our Sal - va - tion, Je - sus Christ, you have be - come a treasury of', 'as - sist - ance for all who seek resurrexion and e - ter - nal life. There - fore, lift', and 'us up from the depths of our trans - gres - sions, for we place our hope in you.' The melody is simple and melismatic, with long notes and ties.

Kathismata (page 10)

People: Lord, have mercy (three times)
Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

Reader: Now and ever and forever. Amen.

The 2nd stasis of the 3rd Kathisma:

Psalm 18

The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament proclaims his handiwork. Day unto day pours out the word and night unto night imparts knowledge. No speech, no word, no voice is heard yet through all the earth their voice resounds; their message reaches to the ends of the world. There he has placed a tent for the sun; it comes forth like a bridegroom coming from his tent, rejoices like a champion to run its course. At the end of the sky is the rising of the sun; to the furthest end of the sky is its course. There is nothing concealed from its burning heat. The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul. The rule of the Lord is to be trusted; it gives wisdom to the simple. The precepts of the Lord are right, they gladden the heart. The command of the Lord is clear, it gives light to the eyes. The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding forever. The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just. They are more to be desired than gold, than the purest of gold and sweeter are they than honey, than honey from the comb. So in them your servant finds instruction; great reward is in their keeping. But who can detect all his errors? From hidden faults acquit me. From presumption restrain your servant and let it not rule me. Then shall I be blameless, clean from grave sin. May the spoken words of my mouth, the thoughts of my heart, win favor in your sight, O Lord, my rescuer, my rock!

Psalm 19

May the Lord hear you on the day of distress; may the name of Jacob's God protect you. May he send you help from his shrine and give you support from Zion. May he remember all your offerings and receive your sacrifice with favor. May he give you your heart's desire and fulfill every one of your plans. May we ring out our joy at your victory and rejoice in the name of our God. (May the Lord grant all your prayers.) I am sure now that the Lord will give victory to his anointed, will reply from his holy heaven with the mighty victory of his hand. Some trust in chariots or horses, but we in the name of the Lord. They will collapse and fall, but we shall hold and stand firm. O Lord, save the king, and hear us when we call upon you.

Psalm 20

Lord, your strength gladdens the king; he rejoices greatly in your salvation. You have granted him his heart's desire; you have not refused the prayer of his lips. You came to meet him with the blessings of success, you have set on his head a crown of precious stones. He asked you for life and this you have given, days that will last from age to age. Your saving help has given him glory. You have laid upon him majesty and splendor; you have granted your blessings to him forever. You have made him rejoice with the joy of your presence. The king has put his trust in the Lord: through the mercy of the Most High he shall stand firm. His hand will seek and find all his foes, his right hand finds out those that hate him. You will burn them like a blazing furnace on the day when you appear. And the Lord will destroy them in his anger; fire will swallow them up. You will wipe out their race from the earth and their children from the sons of men. Though they plan evil against you, though they plot, they shall not prevail. For you will force them to retreat; at them you will aim with your bow. Be exalted, O Lord, in your strength; we will sing and praise your mighty deeds.

Reader: Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

People: Now and ever and forever. Amen.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! Glory to you, O God! (three times)

Matins continues with the small litany on page 10.

the 2nd Hymn of the 1st set of Sessional Hymns (Tone 7):

Cantor: I will praise you, Lord, with all my heart;
I will recount all your wonders.

The wom-en bearing ointment mixed with tears hastened to your grave. When they saw the sol - diers guarding you, O King of all, they said to them-selves:

Who shall roll the stone a-way for us? But they heard the voice of the angel who said to them: The An-gel of great coun-sel is ris - en; he is the vic-tor o - ver Death. There - fore, O almighty One whom nothing can con - tain, glo - ry to you!

Matins continues with the Third Kathisma (either Polyeleos (p. 12) or Psalm 118 (p. 17)).

Tone 7

You have tak - en our im-age and like - ness and en-dured cru - ci - fix - ion in the flesh; save me by your resurrection, O Christ our God, for you are the Lov - er of us all.

Stepenna (page 21)

The Third Antiphon of the Stepenna in Tone 7:

They who fear the Lord are now and ev - er bless - ed; for they have found the way of life in un - de - cay - ing glo - - - ry. O High Priest, as you see your chil-dren's chil-dren like plants a-round your ta - ble, re - joi - ce and be hap - py and of - fer them to Christ.

Glo - ry to the Fa - ther and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it, now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men. The Ho - ly Spir - it is the trea - sure of grace, the a - bun - dant of splen - dor, and the depth of judg - ment. He is equal in glo - ry to the Fa - ther and the Son, and is wor - thy of the same wor - ship.

Matins continues with the Prokeimenon (page 22).

Psalm 9: 12, 33, 2

A - rise, then, Lord my God, lift up your hand. O God, do not for - get the poor!

Deacon: I will praise you, Lord, with all my heart;
I will recount all your wonders.

Matins continues with the Preparation for the Gospel on page 22.

Let everything that lives... (page 22)

Tone 7

Let ev - 'ry - thing that lives and that breathes give praise to the Lord.

The Preparation for the Gospel continues with "That we may be deemed..." on page 23.

The Tenth Resurrection Gospel is read (John 21:1-14).

Matins continues with the Hymn of the Resurrection on page 24.

Ode 5
Irmos

The Canon (page 32)

Tone 7

For the un - believers, you are a night without bright-ness, O Christ; but for the faith - ful, you are their il - lu - min - a - tion, through the en - joy - ment of your di - vine words. For this rea - son I keep watch be - fore you, and I praise your di - vin - i - ty.

Refrain

Glo - ry to your ho - ly Res - ur - rec - tion, O Lord.

You were sold in behalf of the slaves, O Christ, and you bore the slaps which brought freedom to those who sing: I keep watch before you, and I praise your divinity. Refrain

In your divine power, O Christ, and in the weakness of your flesh, you overthrew the powerful one; and by your Resurrection, O Savior, you made me a victor over death.

O pure Mother who is worthy of all our praise, you gave birth to God who was incarnate of you; yet you have not known the marital embrace, for you conceived by the Holy Spirit.

Ode 6 Irmos

Refrain

Enclosed and abandoned in Hades, the souls of the just remember you and beseech you for salvation; by your cross you have granted this, O merciful One, when you descended to the world below. Refrain

The choir of apostles lost hope of ever again contemplating your living temple not made by human hands, for it had been destroyed by your passion. But beyond all hope, they were able to worship it and proclaim everywhere that you are risen.

Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spir - it; now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

O all-immaculate One, who could explain the manner in which you gave birth for us?
For it is the Word, God whom nothing can contain, who was united to you and took flesh in your womb.

Tone 7

No long - er can the might of Death rule o - ver us; Christ de - scend - ed, de - stroying and crush - ing its pow - er. Ha - des re - mains en - chained.
The proph - ets re - joi - ce to - geth - er. The Sav - ior has ap - peared, say - ing to those in dark - ness: Come forth, faith - ful to the Res - ur - rec - tion.

Ikos: Today the underworld, Hades, and Death all tremble before One of the Trinity; the earth quakes and the gates of Hades are seized with fear at your sight. Together with the prophets, all creation rejoices and sings a hymn of victory to you, our God and our Redeemer, who trampled the power of Death. With joy let us cry out to our King: Behold the tree which leads Adam and his posterity back to paradise! Come, O faithful, and let us share in the Resurrection!

Ode 7

Irmos

In days of old, the Youths transformed the fier - y fur - nace in - to a foun - tain of dew when they sang to the one God and said:

The Most High, the God of our Fa - thers, is cov - ered with glo - ry.

Refrain

Glo - ry to your ho - ly Res - ur - rec - tion, O Lord.

Adam perished by the wood for having disobeyed of his own free will; by his obedience Christ came to restore him. The Son of God is crucified for me, and he is covered with glory. Refrain

O Christ, risen from the dead, all creation praises you in hymns; you made life flourish in Hades, you granted resurrection to the dead and light to those in darkness; for you are covered with glory.

Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spir - it; now and ev - er

and for - ev - er. A - men.

Rejoice, O daughter of Adam according to the flesh; rejoice, only spouse of God, for through you Death was abolished; rejoice, for you gave birth to our God. Beseech him, O pure Virgin, to save us.

Matins continues with "Let us greatly extol..." & the Cantic of the Theotokos on p. 34.

Ode 9

Irmos

You con - ceived in all pu - ri - ty, and in you the Word and Creator of the universe be - came in - car - nate; O spouse - less Moth - er and vir - gin - al The - o - to - kos, the a - bode of him whom none could con - tain, and dwell - ing - place of the Infinite One and your cre - a - tor, we ex - tol you!

Refrain

Glo - ry to your ho - ly Res - ur - rec - tion, O Lord.

Let all those who are in error, by saying the Divinity has suffered, now be silenced! Indeed it is not in his divine nature but in his flesh that the Lord of glory was crucified. He is One in two natures, and we now extol him! Refrain

You deny the resurrection of the body; now go to the tomb of Christ, and there you shall learn. The flesh of the Author of life has been put to death; but it has been raised up again to confirm the final resurrection in which we hope.

Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spir - it; now and ev - er

and for - ev - er. A - men.

It is not a triad of divinities that we venerate but a Trinity of persons; not only one person but one sole Divinity. We cut short those who divide the Trinity, and we confound those who in their audacity do not distinguish the Persons. This is the Trinity whom we extol!

Matins continues with the Small Litany on page 36.

Holy is the Lord our God (page 37)

Tone 7

Ho - ly is the Lord our God! Ho - ly is the Lord our God!

Ho - ly is the Lord our God!

Hymn of Light (page 37)

The two sons of Zebedee, with Peter, Nathanael, and Thomas, and two others were fishing in the Lake of Tiberias. By the command of Christ, they cast the net on the right side and drew out many fish. Peter, recognizing Christ, came swimming toward him. This was the third appearance of the Lord after his Resurrection. Then he shared with them bread and fish from the fire.

Glory... now and ever ...

O Virgin, pray to the Lord who rose from the tomb on the third day for us Christians who praise and bless you with zeal. For we have all taken you as a refuge of salvation and as a mediatrix with him. For we are your servants, O Theotokos; we are the people of your house, and we all await your protection.

Matins continues with the Psalms of Praise.

Psalms of Praise (page 38)

Tone 7

Psalm 148

Let ev - 'ry-thing that lives and that breathes give praise to the Lord.

Praise the Lord from the heav-ens, praise him in the heights. To you is due a hymn, O God! Praise him, all his an-gels, praise him, all his host. To you is due a hymn, O God.

The Psalms of Praise continue with "Praise him, sun and moon..." on page 38.

the 7th & 8th of the 8 Sunday stichera:

Cantor (Tone 7):

A - rise, O Lord, lift up your hand! O God, do not for - get the poor.

Tru - ly the re - splen - dent angel sat on the stone of the life-giv - ing grave and pro-claimed to the myrrh-bear - ing wo - men: The Lord is ris - en as he fore-told. Tell his dis-ci-ples that he will go before them in - to Gal - i - lee, he who grants e - ter - nal life and great mer - cy to the world.

Cantor (Tone 7):

I will praise you, Lord, with all my heart; I will re-count your won - ders.
 Why have you re - ject - ed the Cornerstone, O transgressors of the Law?
 He is the Stone which God has placed in Zi - on. He is the One who poured forth water from the rock in the wil - der - ness; from his side, im - mortal life was poured forth for us; he is the Stone which was cut out from the vir - gin - al moun - tain with - out the will of man; he is the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heav - en toward the An - cient of Days as the proph-et Dan-iel said: His king - dom shall last for - - - ev - er.

Cantor (Tone 6):

Glo-ry to the Fa-ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Spir - it.

Tenth Gospel Stanza

Tone 6

Af - ter your descent into Ha - des, O Christ, and your Resur-rec - tion from the dead, the dis - ci - ples grieved o - ver your de - par - ture. They re - turned to their oc - cu - pa - tions and attended to their nets and their boats, but their fish - ing was in vain. You ap - peared to them since you are the Lord of all; you commanded them to cast their nets on the right side. Im - me - diate - ly your word be - came deed. They caught a great num - ber of fish, and they found an unexpected meal pre-pared for them on the shore, which they im - me-diate - ly ate. Now, make us worthy to enjoy this meal with them in a spirit-ual man - ner, O Lord and Lov - er of us all.

Matins continues with "Now and ever..." & the Theotokion for normal Sundays on p. 41.
