

Discernment of Gifts

The Apostle Paul addresses the presence of Spiritual Gifts in three main sections of scripture: Romans 12, I Corinthians 12, and Ephesians 4. Peter also verifies their existence in I Peter 4:10. Through these sections of scripture, we learn that all Christians have been given at least one Spiritual Gift. The purpose of Spiritual Gifts is twofold: (1) to unify Christians in their faith and (2) to produce growth within the church, both numerical and spiritual. These Gifts are to be used out of love for one another, and in service to one another.

We do not choose which Gifts we will receive. God bestows them upon us through the work of the Holy Spirit. Not all of the Gifts identified in scripture are used in this inventory. The spectacular Gifts (speaking in tongues, healing and miracles, prophecy, bold proclamation of God) and some of the non-spectacular Gifts (martyrdom, celibacy) have not been included. Although these Gifts exist, they are not commonly utilized in the mainstream of parish life. Since the objectives of Spiritual Gift deployment are to unify and produce growth through service, in today's church climate, only the service related Gifts have been included.

Administration: the Gift that enables a believer to formulate, direct, and carry out plans necessary to fulfill a purpose. Biblical References: I Corinthians 12:28, Acts 14:23.

Artistry: the Gift that gives the believer the skill of creating artistic expressions that produce a spiritual response of strength and inspiration. Biblical References: Exodus 31:1-11, Psalm 149:3a.

Discernment: the Gift that motivates a believer to seek God's will and purpose and apply that understanding to individual and congregational situations. Biblical References: John 16:6-15, Romans 9:1, I Corinthians 2:9-16.

Evangelism: the Gift that moves believers to reach nonbelievers in such a way that they are baptized and become active members of the Christian community. Biblical References: Matthew 28:16-20, Ephesians 4:11-16, Acts 2:36-40.

Exhortation: the Gift that moves the believer to reach out with Christian love and presence to people in personal conflict facing a spiritual void. Biblical References: John 14:1, II Timothy 1:16-18, III John 5-8.

Faith: the Gift that gives a believer the eyes to see the Spirit at work and the ability to trust the Spirit's leading without indication of where it all might lead. Biblical References: Genesis 12:1-4a, Mark 5:25-34, I Thessalonians 1:8-10.

Giving: the Gift that enables a believer to recognize God's blessings and to respond to those blessings by generously and sacrificially giving of one's resources (time, talent, and treasure). Biblical References: II Corinthians 9:6-15, Luke 21:1-4.

Hospitality: the Gift that causes a believer to joyfully welcome and receive guests and those in need of food and lodging. Biblical References: Romans 12:13, Romans 16:23a, Luke 10:38.

SCORING GRID

For each set of three questions, fill in the number on the lines below, either 1, 2, 3, 4 or 0 that you answered for each then add them together and fill in that number on the last line. For example, in the category of Administration, if you circled 2, 4, and 3 for questions 1, 21 and 41, write those numbers on the lines and add 2+4+3 which totals 9; write 9 on the last line.

The strongest Gift(s) will generally have a total score of "7" or more. If you have more than one Gift with a total of seven or more, then all of these Gifts can be referred to as your "Gift cluster." Notice how each Gift within the cluster has the potential to complement and support another. The Gifts within the cluster will need to be further explored to determine with which ones you have been truly blessed.

This inventory is designed to begin your journey toward Spiritual Gifts discovery. Keep in mind that it is not a scientific instrument. Your perceptions will be validated by others and confirmed through prayer and by their use over time.

Discernment of Gifts

This group of Gifts is your Gift cluster.

With which Gifts have you been truly blessed? Discovering the answer to that question requires the following:

Prayer:

Seek the Holy Spirit's guidance while evaluating your Gifts.

Study:

Become familiar with the scripture references, definitions, and how each Gift functions within the Body of Christ. This will provide you with a solid foundation from which to further evaluate your Gifts.

Self-Examination:

Explore your feelings about each of the Spiritual Gifts in your cluster. Examples of how each Gift may be utilized in the church are provided below. As you read these examples, ask yourself how you feel about the types of ministry activity identified for the Gifts in your cluster. You may expect to feel fulfilled through the use of your Gifts.

Track Your Results:

As you use your Spiritual Gifts, pay close attention to the results produced through your efforts. You can expect to experience positive results from the use of your Gifts.

Listen For Affirmation:

As you use your Spiritual Gifts, listen for affirmation from other Christians. They will recognize and confirm your Spiritual Gifts, through genuine expressions of approval and thankfulness for a job well done!

Putting Your Gifts To Use:

All Christians are to work together, supporting one another. However, our Gifts make us better prepared and equipped to perform in some areas of ministry over others. A person who is working within a ministry area in which he or she is Gifted for, will be more effective in that ministry than one for which he or she is not Gifted.

In what types of ministry will you be most effective? A brief list of ministry examples follows. These examples have been provided merely as thought starters and should not be considered an exhaustive list. Use them as a starting point in exploring the possibilities for putting your Gifts to use within your parish and in your community.
