Special Collection for Ukrainians in Need

Pray for Ukraine and Donate to Help Support Ukrainians in Need

Bishop Milan Lach and the Eparchy of Parma express sincere compassion for the people of Ukraine, especially as they are now in the throes of war and are actively being attacked by Russia. Bishop Milan asks and encourages us to pray for the Ukrainian people and for the swift end of conflict upon them.

During the weeks of March 13 and March 20, 2022, a special collection will be taken by the Eparchy of Parma to help support the suffering people of Ukraine. The money we collect as an Eparchy will be given to Bishop Nil Lushchak, Apostolic Administrator of the Eparchy of Mukachevo in Ukraine, and he will distribute it to those in most need. You can use the envelope in this bulletin to donate to this cause. Or, you can mail a check made payable to "The Eparchy of Parma" to 5000 Rockside Road, Suite 310, Independence, Ohio 44131 with the memo: Ukrainians in Need. Thank you for your support of this collection for our suffering brothers and sisters in Ukraine.

Praying the Psalms with Jesus – Adult ECF

After Divine Liturgy on Sunday, March 6th, we are going to begin exploring a few of the psalms that Jesus prayed, in order to understand and pray the psalms ourselves and to enter into Jesus' prayer. We will use a study guide that provides brief background and explanation about the psalms and how Jesus used them, along with questions that will help us explore the biblical texts and reflect on what these prayers mean for us. The format of our sessions will be mainly a moderated discussion led by Kevin Perrotta, who is also the author of the study guide. The study guide is Psalms II: Praying with Jesus. Chicago: Loyola Press, 2002.

Survey for Synodal Process

As a part of the Synodal Process in the Eparchy of Parma, we are utilizing a survey tool provided to us by the Catholic Leadership Institute. This survey tool is open to all our parishioners and is an anonymous way for you to share with Bishop Milan Lach and your parish priest your assessment of your faith life, your parish, and the Eparchy. More information about the survey is available at <https://parma.org/>

Byzantine Book Club

Next meeting: Monday, March 7th at 7pm

The Byzantine Book club is reading The Old Testament: A Byzantine perspective. For more than 1500 years, the Old Testament has been studied, prayed over and proclaimed liturgically by Christians of the Byzantine Tradition. The Old Testament has nourished the artistry of our iconographers, church architects and hymnographers. In its pages our preachers and teachers have found foreshadowings of the the New Covenant, moral and ethical challenges, and models for pious living.

We are meeting @ the Hendricks Homestead (8461 Barrington Drive, Ypsilanti, MI 48198) or online through Google Meet @ <https://meet.google.com/eyn-qwkv-vrh>.

Invitation to Come, Follow Me

Jesus called his closest followers and apostles to "Come, follow me." We, too, are called to be disciples of Jesus, but this call is often drowned out by the "noise" of our lives. This is an opportunity to reconsider our call to discipleship. We will begin by finding a time/place to meet regularly, to examine our lives, to make choices for the Gospel, and to hold one another accountable for our choices. In time, we will form smaller groups (if our numbers make that appropriate) for discussion, prayer, and support. Finally, we will be given the challenge to share what we are learning with our friends, family, and fellow parishioners.

This 160 page book by Father Justin Rose contains a 20-week program of parish renewal and scripture study for discipleship. Illustrated with weekly exercises and homework.

If you would like to investigate this opportunity, contact Fr. Deacon Lawrence at (734) 255-4099 or frdeaconlawrence@yahoo.com

CHRIST – OUR PASCHA

Part One

THE FAITH OF THE CHURCH

III. WE BELIEVE IN GOD THE FATHER, CREATOR OF HEAVEN AND EARTH, AND IN OUR SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, AND IN THE HOLY SPIRIT, THE LORD, THE GIVER OF LIFE

A. The Creator and His Creation

For Angels, Archangels, Thrones, Dominions, Principalities, Authorities, Powers, and the many-eyed Cherubim praise you.

Around you stand the Seraphim...

(Anaphora of the Liturgy of Saint Basil the Great)

2. The Visible and Invisible World

- 113 The Symbol of Faith points to two different dimensions of the world created by God, the visible and the invisible. Saint Maximus the Confessor teaches about the union of everything visible and invisible in creation. Basing himself on the words of Saint Paul that everything was created by Christ and for Christ (see Col 1:16-17), Maximus understands the word everything to mean the earthly visible and the heavenly invisible, the human visible and the angelic invisible. Having become incarnate, Christ has inseparably united himself with creation in the “body and blood” of his human nature.<sup>88</sup> All creation, visible and invisible, exists not by virtue of its own nature, but by virtue of the action of God’s Son.
- 114 Angels, the heavenly incorporeal beings (spirits)<sup>89</sup> “have their being by the will of the Father, [they] are brought into being by the work of the Son, and are perfected by the presence of the Spirit.”<sup>90</sup> God, as the highest Intelligence, fashioned the angelic intellects. He made them partakers of his inexpressible glory and formed their incorruptible essence. The angels are beacons, who reflect the Light of God. Since they have received eternal life from the Origin of Life, and because they contemplate the eternal Glory and Wisdom, they are like mirrors filled with light.<sup>91</sup>

<sup>89</sup> Prayerbook П р и й д і т е п о к л о н і м с я [Come, Let Us Bow in Worship], Prayers for Every Day, Sunday: Prayer to the Most Holy Trinity (translated from Ukrainian).
