About the Parish

A FEW NOTES FOR THE PASCHAL SEASON

By V. Rev. Fr. Mark Mancuso

- We greet one another during the entire Paschal season (which lasts 40 days) with the words: “Christ is risen!” and the response to the greeting is: “Indeed, He is risen!”
- During the entire Paschal Season and extending to Pentecost there is no prostrating or kneeling permitted in church or at home for we stand with the resurrected Christ: Christ is risen!
- During the Paschal Season we begin all of our prayers at home and in church by singing the troparion of Pascha: “Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and upon those in the tombs bestowing life!”
- During the Paschal Season and extending to Pentecost, we do not pray “O Heavenly King, the Comforter, the Spirit of Truth...” for the Comforter comes on Pentecost. Christ is risen!
- And most important of all: “A Pascha worthy of all honor has dawned for us. Pascha! Let us embrace each other joyously!...This is the day of resurrection. Let us be illumined by the feast. Let us embrace each other. Let us call ‘Brother’ even those who hate us, and forgive all by the resurrection, and so let us cry: Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and upon those in the tombs bestowing life!... And unto us He has given eternal life. Let us worship His Resurrection on the third day!

Byzantine Book Club

Next meeting: Monday, May 9th at 7pm

The Byzantine Book club is reading The Old Testament: A Byzantine perspective. For more than 1500 years, the Old Testament has been studied, prayed over and proclaimed liturgically by Christians of the Byzantine Tradition. The Old Testament has nourished the artistry of our iconographers, church architects and hymnographers. In its pages our preachers and teachers have found foreshadowings of the the New Covenant, moral and ethical challenges, and models for pious living.

We are meeting @ the Hendricks Homestead (8461 Barrington Drive, Ypsilanti, MI 48198) or online through Google Meet @ <https://meet.google.com/eyn-qwkv-vrh>.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM LECTURE

We have received the sad news that our planned speaker for the Sept. 25 lecture must be in Iraq during September and will not be available to speak at our event. We will be working to reschedule the religious freedom series and other events for the future either later this year or 2023. Pray for us as we look ahead. We will be working toward ways to gather our Byzantine Catholic Churches for spiritually beneficial events in addition to the lecture series. If you made a donation toward this event, we will be reaching out to you. You may choose to have your donation refunded or donated to Iraqi Christian Relief.
