Glory to Jesus Christ! Welcome to St. Stephen!
You are welcome here. Join us in prayer and worship

About the Parish

St. Stephen Byzantine Catholic Church, led by the Holy Spirit, is called to evangelize – to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We commit ourselves to welcoming and caring for all of God's children.

We are a parish of the Byzantine Ruthenian Catholic Eparchy of Parma, Bishop Robert (Pipta) is our bishop. Archbishop William (Skurla) of Pittsburgh is our Metropolitan. We are in communion with our holy father Francis, the Pope of Rome.

“Eastern Catholics are in [comm]union with Rome. We share the same faith and the same mysteries, however, our way of expressing them follows the same tradition as the Orthodox Churches.”
– our former pastor Fr. Joseph Radvansky in A Brief Explanation of the Eastern Catholic Churches.

Everyone, please come to the hall and greet him with our hymn to St. Nicholas! Then, I think he may bring something good for our children. On the evening of Tuesday, Dec. 5th:

- Great Vespers & Divine Liturgy for St. Nicholas!

Then, on Sunday, December 10th:

- A celebration after Liturgy including:

The Office of Holy Repentance

During this penitential season in preparation for the Nativity of our Lord, God, and Savior Jesus Christ, we will celebrate the full form of the office of holy repentance on Thursday, December 14th at 7pm. This includes private confession to a priest. There will be an additional priest – Fr. Constantin Hadarag – available for confessions as well on this evening. This is a good opportunity for any prepared children to make their first confession, for those who have been a long time away from this holy mystery to return, and for all of us to simply to go to confession, which is key to a healthy spiritual life.

Adopt a Family

Our parish is adopting a family in need for Christmas. Thank you to everyone for taking the paper ornaments with the ages and wanted items on them. Please purchase the item, wrap it, and put the ornament on it as a tag and return the gift to the table. We need the gifts by December 17th in order to get them to the family in time for Christmas.

There is also a box under the table for non-perishable food items. For example corn, stuffing, etc. Please place any items you have in this box. THANK YOU!!

Guild Cookie Sale

The next Guild Fund raiser will be the COOKIE SALE taking place on Sunday, December 17 after liturgy in the hall. There will be a variety of cookies to pick from. $15.00 per container. Just pick your favorites! If anyone would like to bake cookies to contribute, this would be greatly appreciated.

Bible Discussion – Revelation: God’s Gift of Hope

St. Stephen Parish is beginning its study and discussion of the Book of Revelation. Biblical prophecy can be very difficult to understand; as a result, many people simply skip over the books dealing with biblical prophecy. The book we’ll be using, Revelation: God’s Gift of Hope, provides a helpful Catholic interpretation of perhaps the most mysterious book in the Scriptures. Through this study, participants will see the book of Revelation with new eyes and will grasp hold of its intended, hope-filled message.

Annual Stewardship Appeal

Giving is a way of opening ourselves to opportunity. When we choose to be God's opportunity of help and love for another person, we place ourselves in God's design for giving and receiving from one another. Let us stand in awe of the holiness of God today as we practice recognition of our Lord by giving back to him.

Visit us online at parma.org to submit your one-time or monthly donation to the Stewardship Appeal. Thank you for your generosity!

St. Stephen's goal this year is $7,300.

So far, 17 contributors have donated $2218, which is about 30% of our goal.

2023 Christmas Services

Christmas is on a Monday this year, which means the services are arranged differently than usual.

When December 24th falls on a Saturday or Sunday, the day of strict fasting and the celebration of the Royal Hours in preparation for Christmas are moved to the preceding Friday, since Saturday and Sunday are never days of strict fasting in the Byzantine tradition. We do abstain from certain foods, such as meat, on Saturdays and Sundays during fasting seasons and on this Christmas Eve, but we eat other foods after Divine Liturgy in the mornings. (To fast is to spend some time eating nothing. On strict fast days, such as Friday, December 22nd, 2023, the Byzantine tradition is to fast (or eat nothing) until Vespers (sunset) or until Ninth Hour (about 3pm). This is not a law in our particular Church but may be followed voluntarily).

Divine Liturgy is celebrated every Sunday morning. This is true even if Christmas Eve (December 24th) falls on a Sunday, as it does this year. On Sunday morning at 10am, therefore, as we always do, we will celebrate the Divine Liturgy of Saint John Chrysostom.

Since Divine Liturgy is celebrated on the morning of December 24th, it is not celebrated again in the evening. (It is a general rule in our tradition that the Divine Liturgy is only celebrated once per day in each church). Therefore, Vespers for Christmas will be celebrated by itself, still with a Gospel, but without the Divine Liturgy, at 4pm on Sunday, December 24th. Our parish Holy Supper will follow this, beginning with the singing of our Christmas Carols (Koljady) in the hall. The All-Night Vigil for Christmas (Great Compline & Matins) will begin at 9pm on Sunday night. We will begin singing our Christmas Carols (Koljady) again at 9:30am on Monday morning. Finally, the Divine Liturgy of St. Basil for Christmas will be celebrated Monday morning at 10:00am, since it was not celebrated the night before. Christ is born! All of this is as described in the Typikon (2023 Typikon, pp. 93 - 96).

St. Nicholas Apostolate

The St. Nicholas Apostolate is a means for members in our parish to practice Christian love through giving charitable donations and volunteering. The St. Nicholas Apostolate is facilitating donations from the parish for three funds modeled after the three purses of St. Nicholas. He was a wealthy man before he became a priest and bishop, and he chose to use his wealth to save three impoverished women from slavery by giving each of them a sack of gold coins for a dowry. St. Nicholas is often shown holding three purses or three coins. The three purses of the St. Nicholas Apostolate will be used to support the following:

- 1) charitable organizations
(such as Day House, Image of God Pregnancy Center, & Fish & Loaves)
- 2) fellow parishioners in need
- 3) neighbors and strangers who come to the parish seeking help.

One way that parishioners are encouraged to practice Christ's command to "help those that ask" is through monetary donations. Someday soon, a donation box next to an icon of St. Nicholas will be placed in the narthex with envelopes for parishioners to donate to a purse of their choosing or simply to make an unrestricted gift. Donations for the first purse, charitable organizations, are given directly to the organizations. Donations for the second and third purses, our parishioners and our neighbors, are distributed by Fr. John Russell as he deems appropriate. All donations are tax deductible. In the near future, volunteer opportunities will also be organized for the parish to participate in.

The St. Nicholas Apostolate is not a philanthropic club, but rather is a vehicle for the parish community to respond to God's commandment to love our neighbor, especially our neighbors in need.

"On the subject of mutual charity, you have no need for anyone to write you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another.... Nevertheless, we urge you... to progress even more." (1 Thessalonians 4:9-10).

Contact Fr Deacon Lawrence (frdeaconlawrence@yahoo.com) for more information.

Synodal Process

From the survey and the conversations with parishioners in the context of reflections on the Beatitudes, we have formulated some goals for St. Stephen's.

 Develop opportunities for adult religious education

In the survey, parishioners expressed some reservations about their readiness to share the Christian faith with others. It seems that further education would be helpful. In order to develop something that will best meet parishioners needs, we need to ask more specific questions to discover areas in which they would most like to learn and formats they would find most helpful.

Action: we will create some ways of inquiring into educational needs in the parish during the fall. In the new year we will begin to present new educational opportunities.

Our goal is to involve at least 20 percent of the active adults in the parish in new educational experiences by Pascha next year.

 Encourage and help parishioners to go on retreats

Most parishioners report that they do not often or ever go on retreats. Taking retreat time is a normal practice in Christian life. While retreats in the eparchy are routinely brought to parishioners' attention, more could be done to encourage and help them.

Action: we will give more attention to helping parishioners see the value of taking retreats and will work to identify and promote retreats and help people attend them (transportation, etc.).

We would like to see 10 percent of the active adults in the parish attend a retreat by the end of 2023.

 Develop outreach opportunities

In conversation over the Beatitudes, parishioners expressed the need for ways of serving neighbors in need and also for deepening community life within the parish. Developing outreach opportunities in a way that also deepens parishioners relationships with each other would help to meet this need.

Action: We have revived the long defunct St. Nicholas Apostolate as a way of involving parishioners in service to needy neighbors—and to each other in the parish. The apostolate will encourage donations for help to individuals outside and inside the church and will help parishioners learn about, support, and participate in selected local nonprofit organizations.

Our goal is to involve at least 20 percent of the active adults in the parish in this apostolate.

Please continue to let us know your thoughts about the parish and about these initiatives in particular. You may always call or write:
