About the Parish

St. Stephen Byzantine Catholic Church, led by the Holy Spirit, is called to evangelize – to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We commit ourselves to welcoming and caring for all of God's children.

We are a parish of the Byzantine Ruthenian Catholic Eparchy of Parma, Bishop Robert (Pipta) is our Bishop. Archbishop William (Skurla) of Pittsburgh is our Metropolitan. We are in communion with our holy father Francis, the Pope of Rome.

“Eastern Catholics are in [comm]union with Rome. We share the same faith and the same mysteries, however, our way of expressing them follows the same tradition as the Orthodox Churches.”
– our former pastor Fr. Joseph Radvansky in A Brief Explanation of the Eastern Catholic Churches.

⊕ Feast with the Great Doxology at Matins

⊕ Feast with Six Stichera at Vespers

by tradition, a strict fast day (no meat, dairy, eggs, fish, wine, or oil)

by tradition, wine and oil are permitted (no meat, dairy, eggs, or fish)

by tradition, fish, wine, and oil are permitted (no meat, dairy, or eggs)

Paraklesis

During the Dormition Fast, it is traditional to celebrate the beautiful Office of Supplication to the Theotokos known as the Paraklesis (or Paraklis). Keep an eye on the bulletin for several opportunities to pray this deeply moving service to our Mother, the Theotokos and Ever-Virgin Mary. Don't let the Dormition Fast go by without coming to the Paraklesis!

The Dormition Fast

PROCLAIM A HOLY FAST! (Joel 1:14). Sometimes called “Mary’s Lent,” the Dormition Fast is much shorter than the Great Fast, but equally intense in its traditional observance. This helps prepare us to celebrate the Great Feast of the Dormition of the Theotokos and Ever-Virgin Mary, which remembers and celebrates the death, burial, resurrection, and bodily translation or assumption of God’s Mother into heaven, in perfect imitation of her Son. These events parallel those of Holy Week, but just as Mary’s Lent is 2 weeks rather than 40 days, so also her death, burial, resurrection, and assumption are all celebrated on one day, rather than over the course of many days.

“The traditional rule for the Dormition Fast is a strict abstinence [abstinence from meat, fish, dairy products, eggs, alcohol, and foods cooked in oil] from August 1 to 14, with the usual mitigations (permitting wine and oil) for Saturday and Sunday and the Feast of the Transfiguration (August 6). It is, therefore, observed as the Great Fast. The Ruthenian Metropolia has identified this period as a penitential season (Canon 880). The observance of this fast is voluntary” - from the Typicon arranged by Archpriest David M. Petras, S.E.O.D. for use in the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolia of Pittsburgh.

Traditional fasting during the two-week Dormition fast is like that of the Great Fast:

Monday-Friday:	Strict Fast (one meal – no meat, dairy, eggs, fish, wine, or oil)
Saturday and Sunday:	Wine and Oil permitted.
Holy Transfiguration:	Fish, Wine, & Oil permitted.

Veneration of the Cross & the Small Blessing of Water

On the first day of August, which is the first day of the Dormition Fast, we venerate the Cross and bless water at Matins. This will be at 10:00am on Tuesday, August 1st.

Allen Park Street Fair!

Several volunteers encouraged, prayed, proclaimed the Gospel, and told the story of our parish through icons, fliers, and books at the recent Wyandotte Street Fair in July. Now, we turn to the Allen Park Street Fair. The 2024 Fair will be held August 2nd and 3rd and St. Stephen will have a booth! This Fair attracts over 50,000 visitors. This will be a great opportunity to tell locals and visitors about our Church, our Tradition, and Jesus Christ! Our mission is only possible with your help. Sign up in the narthex to be present at the fair for whatever hours you’re available on those days, then see Victor Jiomkowski for training during the fellowship time in the Crystal Room after Liturgy on Sunday, July 28th.

Blessing of Fruit

On the Great Feast of the Transfiguration, the Church blesses the first fruits, especially grapes and apples. We will offer this blessing after the Ambon Prayer at the Divine Liturgy for the Feast at 10am on Tuesday, August 6th. Bring your fruits to Liturgy that morning and place them on the table for the blessing.

Bible Discussion Group

Our Bible discussion is focusing on two biblical figures of the same name: Joseph, one of Jacob's twelve sons (Genesis 37—50), and Joseph, husband of Mary (Matthew 1—2). We will look closely at each man's life and explore the connections between them.

Everyone is welcome to join in the reading and discussion.

The meetings are now taking place on Sunday evenings at five o'clock on Zoom:

Special Collections 2024

September 14-15, 2024 - Catholic Communication Campaign

The Eparchy of Parma directly benefits from this USCCB Collection as 50% of the funds collected in our churches remain in the Eparchy to support Horizons and other media communications of the Eparchy. The Eparchy of Parma also benefits from the other 50% that goes to the USCCB, as we receive grants from them which financially assist us in our communication efforts within the Eparchy.

December 7-8, 2024 – Retirement Fund for Religious

The Sisters of St. Basil the Great in Uniontown benefit directly from this USCCB Collection for their retired nuns. As they were active and provided ministry to our Eparchy in the past, we wish to help them by participating in this collection. This collection is not for our retired priests but will only benefit the retired nuns of the community of St. Basil the Great.

Assembly 2025 – Byzantine Catholic Metropolitan Church of Pittsburgh

July, 10, 2024

Preparations are underway for our Church – Bishops, Clergy, Monastics, Religious, and Laity - to come together in Assembly next year - from July 16-20, 2025. The gathering will convene at St. Mary Byzantine Catholic Church in Whiting, Indiana under the name and calling, “Come let us worship and bow before Christ”

Worship of the Lord includes our personal prayer and our liturgical prayer life. It is reflected in our relationships with each other and in the ways we live our faith as Byzantine Catholics of the Metropolitan Church of Pittsburgh.

The goal of the Assembly is to together discern ways to live our worship of Christ today in a real and practical manner while learning from the past and looking to the future. The Assembly will include formal presentations, interviews, panel discussion and round table exercises.

Special emphasis will be given to the distinctive contributions Byzantine Catholic have made to their Metropolitan Church.

The Assembly is a time to celebrate the unique contributions of each region and Eparchy while at the same time acknowledging the unity of the Byzantine Catholic Church in North America.

More information will appear in your parish bulletins and online at the Assembly website: byzantineassembly.org

St. Nicholas Apostolate

The St. Nicholas Apostolate is a means for members in our parish to practice Christian love through giving charitable donations and volunteering. The St. Nicholas Apostolate is facilitating donations from the parish for three funds modeled after the three purses of St. Nicholas. He was a wealthy man before he became a priest and bishop, and he chose to use his wealth to save three impoverished women from slavery by giving each of them a sack of gold coins for a dowry. St. Nicholas is often shown holding three purses or three coins. The three purses of the St. Nicholas Apostolate will be used to support the following:

- 1) charitable organizations
(such as the Image of God Pregnancy Center and Fish & Loaves)
- 2) fellow parishioners in need
- 3) neighbors and strangers who come to the parish seeking help.

One way that parishioners are encouraged to practice Christ's command to "give to the one who asks" (Matt 5:42) is through monetary donations. A donation box next to an icon of St. Nicholas has been placed in the narthex with envelopes for parishioners to donate to a purse of their choosing or simply to make an unrestricted gift. Donations for the first purse, charitable organizations, are given directly to the organizations. Donations for the second and third purses, our parishioners and our neighbors, are distributed by Fr. John Russell as he deems appropriate. All donations are tax deductible. We also hope to organize volunteer opportunities for the parish to participate in.

The St. Nicholas Apostolate is not a philanthropic club, but rather is a vehicle for the parish community to respond to God's commandment to love our neighbor, especially our neighbors in need.

"On the subject of mutual charity, you have no need for anyone to write you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another.... Nevertheless, we urge you... to progress even more." (1 Thessalonians 4:9-10).
