About the Parish

St. Stephen Byzantine Catholic Church, led by the Holy Spirit, is called to evangelize – to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We commit ourselves to welcoming and caring for all of God's children. We are a parish of the Byzantine Ruthenian Catholic Eparchy of Parma, Bishop Robert (Pipta) is our Bishop. Archbishop William (Skurla) of Pittsburgh is our Metropolitan. We are in communion with our holy father Francis, the Pope of Rome.

“Eastern Catholics are in [comm]union with Rome. We share the same faith and the same mysteries, however, our way of expressing them follows the same tradition as the Orthodox Churches.”
– our former pastor Fr. Joseph Radvansky in A Brief Explanation of the Eastern Catholic Churches.

Why We Evangelize

from Carson Daniel Lauffer

We will have events in the coming year designed to bring God through our Lord Jesus Christ to as many people as possible and to encourage and pray for the Holy Spirit to draw the people to the Lord. As such, prayer must undergird everything we do. St. Paul wrote in Romans 8:26, “The Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words.” We aren’t the creators of our prayers. God, the Holy Spirit, is the one who creates them. He quickens our hearts in liturgical services and through every breath we take, even when we can’t come up with words. He then takes those prayers to the throne of God. When we participate in the service, look up to the Pantocrator, and pray to the very one seated on the Throne. The King of all kings will hear our prayer and hear the cries of those who need salvation.

Glory to Jesus Christ!

Brothers and Sisters,

We are entering our 70th year of serving Allen Park. God has given us a wonderful Church with a fine priest and family, and He wishes us to share our blessings with others.

As such, the Holy Spirit has drawn us to invite you to join us in this effort. Please consider joining us in this adventure.

On Sunday, February 9, we will gather immediately after Liturgy for a meeting concerning our evangelization efforts. Victor Jiomkowski and Carson Daniel Lauffer will share what God has shared with us. You will be given job descriptions for everything planned and invited to sign up for what you sense is your calling.

In preparation, please think of people and families God has placed on your heart to pray for and care for. These people may be neighbors, fellow workers, teachers, or fellow students. Show compassion on the poor and distressed. Trust in God, not yourself, and ask for His help before every task.

Join us after liturgy on Sunday, February 9.

Discussion of the Gospel of John

St. Stephen's ongoing Bible discussion is an opportunity to explore Scripture in the company of the parish priest and fellow parishioners. This winter and spring we are reading and talking about the Gospel of John.

John's is the most profound of the gospel portraits of Jesus, but it is written so as to enable all of us to encounter Jesus. "These things are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name" (John 20:31). Nourish your own faith by joining us for prayer, reading, questioning, and sharing.

We will be using a short guide for study, reflection, and discussion in the Six Weeks with the Bible series from Loyola Press. Get your free copy from Father John and drop in! We meet most Sunday afternoons (see the Bulletin each week) at five o'clock online. Here is the link to the Zoom meeting:

St. Nicholas Apostolate

The St. Nicholas Apostolate is a means for members in our parish to practice Christian love through giving charitable donations and volunteering. The St. Nicholas Apostolate is facilitating donations from the parish for three funds modeled after the three purses of St. Nicholas. He was a wealthy man before he became a priest and bishop, and he chose to use his wealth to save three impoverished women from slavery by giving each of them a sack of gold coins for a dowry. St. Nicholas is often shown holding three purses or three coins. The three purses of the St. Nicholas Apostolate will be used to support the following:

1) charitable organizations

(such as the Image of God Pregnancy Center and Fish & Loaves)

2) fellow parishioners in need

3) neighbors and strangers who come to the parish seeking help.

One way that parishioners are encouraged to practice Christ's command to "give to the one who asks" (Matt 5:42) is through monetary donations. A donation box next to an icon of St. Nicholas has been placed in the narthex with envelopes for parishioners to donate to a purse of their choosing or simply to make an unrestricted gift. Donations for the first purse, charitable organizations, are given directly to the organizations. Donations for the second and third purses, our parishioners and our neighbors, are distributed by Fr. John Russell as he deems appropriate. All donations are tax deductible. We also hope to organize volunteer opportunities for the parish to participate in.

The St. Nicholas Apostolate is not a philanthropic club, but rather is a vehicle for the parish community to respond to God's commandment to love our neighbor, especially our neighbors in need.

"On the subject of mutual charity, you have no need for anyone to write you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another.... Nevertheless, we urge you... to progress even more." (1 Thessalonians 4:9-10).

Contact Fr Deacon Lawrence (frdeaconlawrence@yahoo.com) for more information.
