How to Put Together a Traditional Easter Basket

A beloved Slavic tradition at Pascha is bringing a basket of food to church on Easter to be blessed after the Divine Liturgy. Paschal foods celebrate the Resurrection and often include items that were set aside during the Great Fast. They are typically brought to the midnight service on Holy Saturday, blessed after the liturgy, and enjoyed at the feast that follows.

HORSERADISH
BUTTER
KOLBASI
PASCHA BREAD
SALT
CHEESE
CANDLE
EGGS
HAM
BACON

PASCHA - The Easter Bread (Pron. Pa-ska.) A sweet yeast bread rich in eggs, butter, etc. Symbolic of Christ Himself who is our True Bread. Usually round loaf baked with a golden crust decorated with a symbol indicative of Christ. Sometimes a cross (+) of dough is placed on top encircled by a plait given it a crossened effect or Greek.

CHEESE - (Rusyn: Hiradka or Siroc) A custard type cheese shaped into a ball having a rather hard but sweet taste indicative of the moderation that Christians should have in all things. Also creamed cheese is placed in a small dish and both are decorated with symbols (see Pascha) out of cloves or pepper balls.

HAM - (Rusyn: Suska - pron. shoon-ka.) The flesh most popular with the Slavs as the main dish because of its richness and symbolic of the great joy and abundance of Easter. Some may prefer Lamb or Veal. This is usually well roasted or cooked as well as other meats so the festivity of the day will not be hindered with preparation and all may enjoy the feast.

BUTTER - (Rusyn: Maslo pron. ma-slo.) This favorite dairy product is often shaped into a figure of a Lamb or small cross and decorated as the cheese. This reminds us of the goodness of Christ that we should have toward all things.

BACON - (Rusyn: Slavina pron. sla-ni-na) A piece of uncooked bacon cured with spices. Symbolic of the overabundance of God's mercy to us.

SALT - (Rusyn: Sol' pron. sol') A condiment necessary for flavor reminding the Christian of his duty to others.

SAUSAGE (Rusyn: Kolbasi-pron. kol-ba-si) A spicy, garlic sausage of pork products indicative of God's favor and generosity.

EGGS (Rusyn: Pisanki pron. pi-sun-ki) Hardboiled eggs brightly decorated with symbols and markings made with beeswax, indicative of new life and resurrection. Red eggs are also traditional date back to a story with St. Mary Magdalene. Having been dyed with onion skins saved over the past year, red shows the color of life and victory that came through Christ's blood.

HORSERADISH (Rusyn: Chren pron. khren) Horseradish mixed with grated red beets (optional) symbolizes the Passion of Christ still in our minds but sweetened with some sugar because of the Resurrection. A bitter-sweet red colored mixture reminds us of the sufferings of Christ.

These articles are placed in a wicker basket. A decorated candle is placed inside and is lit at the time of the blessing. A linen cover usually embroidered with a picture of the Risen Christ or symbol with the words "Christ is Risen" is placed over the food when brought to the Church. In some places a large Easter Bread (Pascha) is made and brought separately in a large linen cloth. If the origin of the people was from a wine growing area, a sweet wine may be brought.

Palm Sunday

Jn 12,1-18

The triumphant entry of Jesus into the city of Jerusalem before His passion, was celebrated with solemnity since the first centuries of Christianity. In the Byzantine Rite it is considered to this day one of the twelve Major Feasts of the liturgical year. It is always celebrated on the Sunday before Easter with the blessing of branches. In liturgical books the feast is referred to as Palm Sunday or Vaj Sunday (Gr. baion-palm branch) for, on that Sunday, palm branches were blessed and distributed to the faithful. Popularly it was also called Willow Sunday (Verbna Ned'ilja) because in Europe, pussy-willows were blessed instead of palms. It is also known as Flower Sunday (Cvitna Ned'ilja) since in and near Constantinople they used to distribute early spring flowers, such as branches of lilac or elder, to the faithful Jesus Christ, after raising Lazarus (Jn 11:1-44), was finally recognized by the Jewish people as their Messiah. When He arrived in Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover, they greeted Him with a triumphant welcome.

The Evangelist, however, hastened to remark that it was done in fulfillment of a prophecy (Mt 21:4-5) When the Apostles saw the enthusiastic crowds, they brought a donkey colt, and made their Master ride upon it, while the people spread their cloths and strewed "branches from the trees" (Mt 21:8) on the road in front of Him. Others took "branches of palm" (Jn 12:13) in their hands and, cheering cried out: "Hosanna! Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!" (Mt 21:9) As Jesus was entering the city, surrounded by the excited crowds, the Scribes and Pharisees became alarmed and decided to stop Him at any cost. But the people kept acclaiming Him as their Messiah, saying: "This is the Prophet, Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee!" (Mt 21:10). The two prayers for the blessing of branches used in the Byzantine Rite churches seem to be the original prayers, since they are found in the oldest ritual book, Euchologion of Barberini dated in the eighth century. By the first prayer we are reminded that Jesus Christ, entered the Holy City on Palm Sunday, voluntarily accepted His passion and death for our salvation, and that the triumphant procession with palm branches heralded His glorious resurrection. The second prayer alludes to the olive branch brought to Noah by a dove at the end of the deluge as a token of divine protection and blessing (peace). Therefore, in prayer, the priest asks divine protection and blessing on every home where the blessed branches will be reverently preserved.

The blessed branches should be carried home as a sacramental, as a visible symbol of Christ's presence. They should be entwined on the crucifix or used to decorate an icon, and to serve as a "sign of salvation," and a "pledge of protection and blessing" during the coming year as invoked by the second Prayer of Blessing.
